

Vital Signs

THE ULTIMATE RUSH TRIBUTE BAND

Dan (Goober) Lautenschlager (Percussion)

What can you say about the guy driving the locomotive behind a Rush Tribute band. Dan's signature timing and intricate fills will quickly let you know why he got the job. Just another drummer who sat around talking about what a great drummer Neil Peart is and how cool it would be to start a Rush Tribute band. Well he finally hooked up with a couple of guys that had the same idea and now we have Vital Signs. Dan has played in many other projects over the years including The Ultimate Ozzy Tribute band. You will definitely want to see Dan in action, it is truly amazing.
